LEARNING LEVEL | ALL

blog.lesaonline.org

Real Estate Considerations | Nolan Johnson

Gain practical tips for managing client closing issues, transactions not covered by Protocol, closing when using Protocol, sales of agricultural land, and common questions asked by real estate agents and brokers.

Employment Law Update | Wayne Petersen

Review recent updates and practice tips to address common questions raised by employers and employees. Review the benefits of a written employment contract, what amounts to just cause for dismissal, and how to deal with recently disciplined employees who go on medical leave.

Balancing Service and Sanity in Family Law | Robert G. Harvie QC

How can you balance knowledge, skills, and the emotional detachment needed to advise clients (and avoid burnout, complaints, and lawsuits)? Discuss how to handle typical questions or complaints, let go of outcomes, obtain clear instructions, and maintain a healthy work-life balance.

Litigation: Handling Complicated Conflict | Alexander G. McKay QC

Discuss how to explain the process, offer options, remain objective, use alternative resolution processes, and help clients find solutions in a process often driven by emotion and mistrust rather than common sense.

Common Corporate Questions | Nikki J.L. van Mulligen

Answer top client questions about starting up, maintaining, and planning the succession of a business. Identify key considerations when helping clients choose the most suitable business structure for their situation.

Wills & Estates: Practical Considerations | Murray Pritchard

Review the practical and legal considerations at play when advising clients: considerations when choosing an executor, obligations to a second spouse versus children from a first marriage, factors affecting probate, and typical tax filings required during the administration of an estate.
