Education Assistant Edmonton, Alberta

The Legal Education Society of Alberta (LESA) was founded in 1975 to serve the Alberta legal community. As the primary provider of continuing legal education in the province, we serve the spectrum of educational and professional development needs by delivering high-quality educational programs and resources. We strive to lead the way in corporate culture by valuing our greatest asset—our employees. We are happy to have been named as one of Alberta's Top 70 Employers for the past three consecutive years (2018, 2017, 2016).

We are seeking to fill the role of Education Assistant, based in Edmonton. This position reports to the Director of Education and provides general administrative support to the Education Team. This is a one-year term position, with the possibility of extension.

THE ROLE

Education Assistants are expected to:

- Provide general administrative support for the Education Team;
- Organize, compile, and distribute materials for instruction and evaluation;
- Fulfill customer service duties, including participating in a phone rotation;
- Enter data into, and retrieve data from, a customer relationship management system;
- Prepare and send correspondence (to/from internal and external stakeholders);
- Handle incoming and outgoing mail, faxes, record-keeping, and filing;
- Prepare and administer surveys, and collate data;
- Administer online registrations and subscriptions and fill publication orders;
- Format materials for publication;
- Convert content to various formats (e.g. docx, pdf, xlsx, epub, html, mp3, mp4);
- Upload content to online platforms (e.g. LMS, wiki, ftp, website, video sharing platform, etc.);
- Deal with technical login or access issues from customers;
- Support other Education Assistants, Integration Assistants, and Legal Assistants; and
- Perform other administrative activities, as required.

Education Assistants must perform their duties in a manner consistent with (a) LESA's mission, vision, and values, (b) the organizational goals set by LESA, (c) the goals set by the Education Team, and (d) the regular direction provided by their immediate supervisor. They are expected to bring to the attention of their supervisor or the Executive Director any issue that could pose a risk to the organization (including financial, reputational, political, or legal). When exercising decision-making authority, they are expected to use a knowledge-based approach. Education Assistants should have, or be prepared to develop, the competencies listed in LESA's HR Guide to Organizational Design: Appendix I.
