Court of Appeal Practice

LEARNING LEVEL | ALL

You too can learn how to be persuasive and prompt in the Court of Appeal.

Attend this program to increase your comfort level and chances of success.

This course shows you how to combine several basic principles. You'll also gather techniques that you can easily adapt to all other types of legal writing and advocacy.

In this course, you will learn how to:

- Build a record in the trial court,
- Decide when to appeal and when to negotiate,
- Understand new limitation periods for appeals,
- Plan the theory of your case and stick to it,
- Write clear, appealing, persuasive argument,
- Present facts,
- Make effective oral argument,
- Handle questions from the Bench,
- Recognize when to make one-judge motions (and how to do so), including permission to appeal,
- Use little-known free options, and
- Draft formal judgments confidently.

This course will be available as a seminar on demand
