Wills & EPAs—Commonly Occurring Issues

Rules for Lapse and Other Failed Gifts | PRESENTER: Sandra L. Hawes

Learn the rules for lapse and other failed gifts through an examination of ss 32 and 33 of the Wills and Succession Act [WSA], including: circumstances covered by ss 32 and 33, possible alternative gift recipients, the interaction between ss 21(1) (void gifts) and ss 32 and 33, removal of the distinction between specific gifts and gifts of residue in the WSA, and interesting cases where ss 32 and 33 have been applied.

The Resistant Grantor: Best Practices and Ethical Considerations for Attorneys | PRESENTER: Jennifer R. Lamb

- When is it time for a person to consider granting Power of Attorney?
- Who is the best person to appoint as attorney?
- What issues are at play when a donor is reluctant to grant Power of Attorney?

These are just some of the ethical considerations that can arise when a donor is preparing to relinquish control of their affairs to someone else. Learn to identify challenging issues for attorneys, and discuss a variety of outcomes and dispute resolution tactics for those issues. Discuss conflicting Power of Attorney documents and ethical considerations for third parties (such as financial institutions).

Flawed EPAs and Diminished Clients | PRESENTER: John E.S. Poyser

Learn the unique world of managing EPAs on the grounds of capacity and undue influence. Get answers to questions, including:

- Once the EPA is validly in place, can I still take instructions from the donor?
- When should an attorney give instructions?
- When does a litigation guardian supersede an attorney?

Tricky Sticky Wills and Codicils | PRESENTER: Patricia L. Daunais QC

Engage in an overview of cases specifically dealing with ss 22, 23, and 24 of the WSA, and explore the process of changing designated beneficiaries under plans after a will has been executed, including common pitfalls and what to watch for. Explore the 3 Rs (revocation, revival, and republication) and 2 As (alteration and amendment).

Non-Compliant Wills: When Scribbles on a Napkin May Actually Be a Will | PRESENTER: Peter J. Glowacki

Many Canadian provinces now provide their Courts with the discretion to cure deficiencies when: (a) the normal execution formalities for a will have not been complied with, and (b) some errors require rectification. Texts, notes, and fill-in-the-blank forms can now be considered a will. Review relevant legislation and leading cases, and identify key factors as they relate to non-compliant wills.
